ARTICLE IX — Permanent Fund

Section 1. Origin—How Used. All moneys accruing from Life Membership shall constitute the Permanent Fund of Boston Council, together with bequests and donations made for this specific purpose. No part of the principal thereof shall be expended or appropriated for any purpose whatever, except as an investment, unless sanctioned at a Regular Assembly, by four-fifths of the members present, and then only after a notice of the same has been read in open Council at a previous Regular Assembly, referred to a Committee of five, borne on the notice of two consecutive Regular Assemblies of the Council, and also borne upon the notification of the Assembly at which the proposed appropriation is to be acted upon and adopted by four-fifths of the members present.

Section 2. Board of Trustees. The Permanent Fund shall be held in the name of Boston Council of Royal and Select Masters, but shall be under the direction of a Board of Trustees, consisting of the Illustrious Master, Treasurer, and three Members who hold no other office in the Council. One member of the Board shall be elected by ballot at each Regular Assembly in May, to serve for a term of three years beginning as of the next annual installation of officers. Section 4. Duties of the Trustees. The Board of Trustees shall carefully and judiciously invest the Permanent Fund, and such other moneys as may be donated or placed in their charge by vote of the Council in such manner, as in their best judgment, shall be safest and most productive, and shall select a suitable place of deposit for the securities and vouchers, where their absolute safety from fire and theft shall be insured.

The Board of Trustees shall keep a full and accurate record of the investments of the Funds in their charge, and at each Annual Assembly they shall submit to the Council, in writing, a correct detailed statement of the same.

Section 2. The income of the Charity Fund shall be available for Charity purposes only — and only upon the written order of the Illustrious Master. No part of the Principal of said

Fund shall be used except for Charitable purposes, and then only by a two-thirds affirmative vote of the members present at a stated Assembly, and the proposal shall be borne upon the Notices of three consecutive Regular Assemblies, action to be taken on the third Assembly.

ARTICLE XI — Diplomas

Any Member receiving his Degrees in this Council shall be entitled to a Diploma.

ARTICLE XII — Dimits

No Member shall have an honorable discharge from Membership, until he has complied with the By-Laws relative to dues.

ARTICLE XIII — Alterations or Amendments

These By-Laws shall not be altered or amended unless the proposed alteration or amendment be presented in writing at a Regular Assembly of the Council, referred to a Committee, and a notice thereof borne upon the notification for the succeeding Regular Assembly, and then adopted by a two-thirds vote of the members present, provided, however, that this Article shall in no way affect the provisions in Article IX pertaining to the Permanent Fund requiring a four-fifths affirmative vote of the members present for adoption. This exception shall not be altered or amended in this Article XIII unless adopted by a four-fifths affirmative vote of the members present.

From the Recorder's Quill

The impressive drama of the Super Excellent Master Degree is one of the most forceful ever taught. It deals with the siege and destruction of Jerusalem in 586 B.B. and with the resultant captivity of the Hebrew people into Babylonia.

It teaches with beautiful symbolism the virtues of Faith, Friendship and Fidelity.

Companion, Ted

Paul H. Walker, retired lawyer who won Silver Star; at 82

By Allison Mudge
GLOBE CORRESPONDENT

Paul H. Walker of Newton, a retired lawyer for New England Mutual Life Insurance Co., died Feb. 14 of a brain aneurysm in Newton-Wellesley Hospital. He was 82.

Born in Baldwyn, Miss., Mr. Walker attended East Mississippi Junior College, Louisiana State University, and the University of Missouri, said his daughter, Melinda Zelenkov of Bolton. He earned his juris doctor and master of laws degrees from George Washington University. He settled in Brookline in 1968 with his wife, Gwendolyn (Loomis), whom he had married in 1950. The couple moved to the Auburndale section of Newton in 2000.

A month before the Battle of the Bulge during World War II, Mr. Walker and several others took over a German-held trench and kept it until the allies gained control of the area days later, said his son, Michael, of Rockville, Md. Mr. Walker earned both Silver and Bronze stars.

Mr. Walker was a member and officer of many organizations, including the American Bar Association and The Society of the War of 1812. He was a past master of Mount Lebanon (Masonic) Lodge, high priest of St. Andrews Royal Arch Chapter, and president general of the Sons of the American Revolution.

His daughter said he thrived on his roles in these groups and never missed a meeting. He loved giving legal counsel and helping others.

His interests also included photography, camping, and travel.

The church was one of the most important parts of his life, and he shared his Christian faith with his children. His son called Mr. Walker a moral, inspirational man who stood by his principles and his family.

In addition to his wife, son, and daughter, Mr. Walker leaves a sister, Annie Laurie Arnold of Baldwyn, Miss.; a brother, Charles, of Memphis; and three grandchildren.

A funeral was held Friday in the Congregational Church of Dudley. Burial will be this Friday at 2 p.m. in the Massachusetts Veterans Memorial Cemetery in Winchendon.

Closing Hymn: Jerusalem (H. 585)

[1] Jerusalem, my happy home, when shall I come to thee?
When shall my sorrows have an end? Thy joys when shall I see?

[2] Thy saints are crowned with glory great; they see God face to face;
They triumph still, they still rejoice, most happy is their case.

[3] There David stands with harp in hand as master of the choir:
Ten thousand times that man were blessed that might this music hear.

[4] Our Lady sings Magnificat with tune surpassing sweet,
And all the virgins bear their part, sitting at her feet.

[5] There Magdalen hath left her moan, and cheerfully doth sing
With blessèd saints, whose harmony in every street doth ring.

[6] Jerusalem, Jerusalem, God grant that I may see
Thine endless joy, and of the same partaker ever be!

Service Hymn: For All the Saints (H. 126)

[1] For all the saints, who from their labors rest,
Who thee by faith before the world confessed,
Thy Name, O Jesus, be forever blessed. Alleluia, Alleluia!

[2] Thou wast their rock, their fortress and their might;
Thou, Lord, their Captain in the well fought fight;
Thou, in the darkness drear, their one true Light. Alleluia, Alleluia!

[3] O may thy soldiers, faithful, true, and bold,
Fight as the saints who nobly fought of old,
And win, with them, the victor's crown of gold. Alleluia, Alleluia!

[4] O blest communion, fellowship divine!
We feebly struggle, they in glory shine;
Yet all are one in thee, for all are thine. Alleluia, Alleluia!

[5] And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long,
Steals on the ear the distant triumph song,
And hearts are brave, again, and arms are strong. Alleluia, Alleluia!

[6] The golden evening brightens in the west;
Soon, soon to faithful warriors comes their rest;
Sweet is the calm of paradise the blessed. Alleluia, Alleluia!

[7] But lo! there breaks a yet more glorious day;
The saints triumphant rise in bright array;
The King of glory passes on his way. Alleluia, Alleluia!

[8] From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast,
Through gates of pearl streams in the countless host,
Singing to Father, Son and Holy Ghost: Alleluia, Alleluia!

The Order for the Burial of the Dead

According to the Book of Common Prayer
and the use of the Traditional Anglican Communion

The Minister meets the body at the entrance to the church. After the pall has been placed on the casket, he sprinkles it with Holy Water, saying,

Rest eternal grant unto him, O Lord.

Answer. And let light perpetual light shine upon him.

INTO THY HANDS, O merciful Saviour, we commend the soul of thy servant. Acknowledge, we humbly beseech thee, a sheep of thine own fold, a lamb of thine own flock, a sinner of thine own redeeming. Receive him into the arms of thy mercy, into the blessed rest of everlasting peace, and into the glorious company of the saints in light. Amen.

The Minister leads the casket into the church, saying or singing ,

I AM the resurrection and the life, saith the LORD: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: and whosoever liveth and believeth in me, shall never die.

I KNOW that my redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth: and though this body be destroyed, yet shall I see God: whom I shall see for myself, and mine eyes shall behold, and not as a stranger.

WE brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. The LORD gave, and the LORD hath taken away; blessed be the name of the LORD.

¶ After they are come into the Church, shall be said one or both of the following Selections taken from the Psalms. The Gloria Patri is not said.

Domine, refugium. Psalm xc.

LORD, thou hast been our refuge, * from one generation to another.

Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever the earth and the world were made, * thou art God from everlasting, and world without end.

Thou turnest man to destruction; * again thou sayest, Come again, ye children of men.

For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday, when it is past, * and as a watch in the night.

As soon as thou scatterest them they are even as a sleep; * and fade away suddenly like the grass.

In the morning it is green, and groweth up; * but in the evening it is cut down, dried up, and withered.

For we consume away in thy displeasure, * and are afraid at thy wrathful indignation.

Thou hast set our misdeeds before thee; * and our secret sins in the light of thy countenance.

For when thou art angry all our days are gone: * we bring our years to an end, as it were a tale that is told.

The days of our age are threescore years and ten; and though men be so strong that they come to fourscore years, * yet is their strength then but labour and sorrow; so soon passeth it away, and we are gone.

So teach us to number our days, * that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.

Levavi oculos. Psalm cxxi.

I WILL lift up mine eyes unto the hills; * from whence cometh my help?

My help cometh even from the LORD, * who hath made heaven and earth.

He will not suffer thy foot to be moved; * and he that keepeth thee will not sleep.

Behold, he that keepeth Israel * shall neither slumber nor sleep.

The LORD himself is thy keeper; * the LORD is thy defence upon thy right hand;

So that the sun shall not burn thee by day, * neither the moon by night.

The LORD shall preserve thee from all evil; * yea, it is even he that shall keep thy soul.

The LORD shall preserve thy going out, and thy coming in, * from this time forth for evermore.

In place of the Gloria Patri, here shall be said,

REST eternal grant unto him , O Lord:

Answer. And let light perpetual shine upon him.

The Order for Holy Communion

Minister. The Lord be with you.
Answer. And with thy spirit.
Let us pray.

¶ The People kneel. The Celebrant, turning to the Holy Table, says:

ALMIGHTY God, unto whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid; Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of thy Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love thee, and worthily magnify thy holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ The Celebrant, turning to the People, says:

Hear what our Lord Jesus Christ saith.

THOU shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it; Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets.

¶ Here shall be said or sung,

Lord, have mercy upon us.
Response. Christ, have mercy upon us.
Lord, have mercy upon us.

The Lord be with you.
Response. And with thy spirit.

The Sermon.

The Celebrant shall return to the Holy Table, and begin the Offertory, saying.

Thine, O LORD, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine. Thine is the kingdom, O LORD, and thou art exalted as head above all. 1 Chron. xxix. 11.

~ Offertory Hymn ~

¶ The Celebrant shall then offer and place upon the Holy Table the Bread and the Wine. When all is prepared, he shall say,

Let us pray for the whole state of Christ's Church.

ALMIGHTY and everliving God, who by thy holy Apostle hast taught us to make prayers, and supplications, and to give thanks for all men; We humbly beseech thee most mercifully to accept our oblations, and to receive these our prayers, which we offer unto thy Divine Majesty; beseeching thee to inspire continually the Universal Church with the spirit of truth, unity, and concord: And grant that all those who do confess thy holy Name may agree in the truth of thy holy Word, and live in unity and godly love.

We beseech thee also, so to direct and dispose the hearts of all Christian Rulers, that they may truly and impartially administer justice, to the punishment of wickedness and vice, and to the maintenance of thy true religion, and virtue.

Give grace, O heavenly Father, to all Bishops and other Ministers, that they may, both by their life and doctrine, set forth thy true and lively Word, and rightly and duly administer thy holy Sacraments.

And to all thy People give thy heavenly grace; and especially to this congregation here present; that, with meek heart and due reverence, they may hear, and receive thy holy Word; truly serving thee in holiness and righteousness all the days of their life.

And we most humbly beseech thee, of thy goodness, O Lord, to comfort and succour all those who, in this transitory life, are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity.

And we also bless thy holy Name for all thy servants departed this life in thy faith and fear, remembering especially thy servant N.; beseeching thee to grant them continual growth in thy love and service, and to give us grace so to follow their good examples, that with them we may be partakers of thy heavenly kingdom. Grant this, O Father, for Jesus Christ's sake, our only Mediator and Advocate. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Celebrant say to those who come to receive the Holy Communion,

YE who do truly and earnestly repent you of your sins, and are in love and charity with your neighbours, and intend to lead a new life, following the commandments of God, and walking from henceforth in his holy ways; Draw near with faith, and take this holy Sacrament to your comfort; and make your humble confession to Almighty God, devoutly kneeling.

¶ Then shall this General Confession be made, by the Celebrant and all those who are minded to receive the Holy Communion, humbly kneeling.

ALMIGHTY God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Maker of all things, Judge of all men; We acknowledge and bewail our manifold sins and wickedness, Which we, from time to time, most grievously have committed, By thought, word, and deed, Against thy Divine Majesty, Provoking most justly thy wrath and indignation against us. We do earnestly repent, And are heartily sorry for these our misdoings;

The remembrance of them is grievous unto us; The burden of them is intolerable. Have mercy upon us, Have mercy upon us, most merciful Father; For thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ's sake, Forgive us all that is past; And grant that we may ever hereafter Serve and please thee In newness of life, To the honour and glory of thy Name; Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Celebrant (the Bishop if he be present) turn to the People and say,

ALMIGHTY God, our heavenly Father, who of his great mercy hath promised forgiveness of sins to all those who with hearty repentance and true faith turn unto him; Have mercy upon you; ✠ pardon and deliver you from all your sins; confirm and strengthen you in all goodness; and bring you to everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Celebrant say,

Hear what comfortable words our Saviour Christ saith unto all who truly turn to him.

Come unto me, all ye that travail and are heavy laden, and I will refresh you. St. Matt. xi. 28.

So God loved the world, that he gave his only-begotten Son, to the end that all that believe in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. St. John iii. 16.

Hear also what Saint Paul saith.

This is a true saying, and worthy of all men to be received, That Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners. 1 Tim. i. 15.

Hear also what Saint John saith.

If any man sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous; and he is the Propitiation for our sins. 1 John ii. 1, 2.

¶ After which the Celebrant shall say,

The Lord be with you.
Answer. And with thy spirit.
Lift up your hearts.
Answer. We lift them up unto the Lord.
Let us give thanks unto our Lord God.
Answer. It is meet and right so to do.

¶ Then shall the Celebrant turn to the Holy Table, and say,

IT IS very meet, right, and our bounden duty, that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks unto thee, O Lord, Holy Father, Almighty, Everlasting God.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord, in whom the hope of a blessed resurrection hath shone upon us; that we who are saddened by the certainty of dying, may be comforted by the promise of immortal life to come. For the life of thy faithful people, O Lord, is not taken away but changed; and though the tabernacle of their earthly habitation is dissolved, thou preparest them a house eternal in the heavens.

THEREFORE with Angels and Archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify thy glorious Name; evermore praising thee, and saying, ¶ Celebrant and People.

HOLY, HOLY, HOLY, Lord God of hosts, Heaven and earth are full of thy glory: Glory be to thee, O Lord Most High. Blessed is he that cometh in the Name of the Lord. Hosanna in the Highest.

¶ Then the Celebrant shall say the Prayer of Consecration, as followeth.

ALL glory be to thee, Almighty God, our heavenly Father, for that thou, of thy tender mercy, didst give thine only Son Jesus Christ to suffer death upon the Cross for our redemption; who made there (by his one ✠oblation of ✠himself once ✠offered) a full, perfect, and sufficient sacrifice, oblation, and satisfaction, for the sins of the whole world; and did institute, and in his holy Gospel command us to continue, a perpetual memory of that his precious death and sacrifice, until his coming again: For in the night in which he was betrayed, he took Bread; and when he had given ✠thanks, he brake it, and gave it to his disciples, saying,

TAKE, EAT, THIS IS MY BODY, WHICH IS GIVEN FOR YOU;
DO THIS IN REMEMBRANCE OF ME.

Likewise, after supper, he took the Cup; and when he had given ✠ thanks, he gave it to them, saying,

DRINK YE ALL OF THIS; FOR THIS IS MY BLOOD OF THE NEW TESTAMENT,
WHICH IS SHED FOR YOU, AND FOR MANY, FOR THE REMISSION OF SINS;
DO THIS, AS OFT AS YE SHALL DRINK IT, IN REMEMBRANCE OF ME.

WHEREFORE, O LORD and heavenly Father, according to the institution of thy dearly beloved Son our Saviour Jesus Christ, we, thy humble servants, do celebrate and make here before thy Divine Majesty, with these thy holy ✠gifts, which we now offer unto thee, the memorial thy Son hath commanded us to make; having in remembrance his blessed passion and precious death, his mighty resurrection and glorious ascension; rendering unto thee most hearty thanks for the innumerable benefits procured unto us by the same.

AND we most humbly beseech thee, O merciful Father, to hear us; and, of thy almighty goodness, vouchsafe to ✠bless and ✠ sanctify, with thy Word and Holy Spirit, these thy gifts and creatures of bread and wine; that we, receiving them according to thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ's holy institution, in remembrance of his death and passion, may be partakers of his most blessed ✠Body and ✠Blood.

And we earnestly desire thy fatherly goodness, mercifully to accept this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving; most humbly beseeching thee to grant that, by the merits and death of thy Son Jesus Christ, and through faith in his blood, we, and all thy whole Church, may obtain remission of our sins, and all other benefits of his passion. And here we offer and present unto thee, O Lord, our selves, our souls and bodies, to be a reasonable, holy, and living sacrifice unto thee; humbly beseeching thee, that we, and all others who shall be partakers of this Holy Communion, may worthily receive the most precious ✠Body and ✠Blood of thy Son Jesus Christ, be ✠filled with thy grace and heavenly benediction, and made one body with him, that he may dwell in us, and we in him.

Remember also, O Lord, thy servant N. who has gone before us with the sign of faith and is at rest in the sleep of peace. To him, O Lord, and to all who rest in Christ, we beseech thee to grant a place of refreshment, of light, and of peace.

And although we are unworthy, through our manifold sins, to offer unto thee any sacrifice; yet we beseech thee to accept this our bounden duty and service; not weighing our merits, but pardoning our offences, through Jesus Christ our Lord; by ✠whom, and with ✠whom, in the ✠unity of the Holy Ghost, all ✠honour and ✠glory be unto thee, O Father Almighty, world without end. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ hath taught us, we are bold to say,

Our father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, On earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

After the Fraction, The peace of the Lord be always with you.
Answer, And with thy spirit.

O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world,
Grant them rest.
O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world,
Grant them rest.
O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world,
Grant them rest eternal.

¶ Then shall the Celebrant, kneeling down at the Lord's Table, say, in the name of all those who shall receive the Communion, this Prayer following.

WE do not presume to come to this thy Table, O merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness, but in thy manifold and great mercies. We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under thy Table. But thou art the same Lord, whose property is always to have mercy: Grant us therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of thy dear Son Jesus Christ, and to drink his blood, that our sinful bodies may be made clean by his body, and our souls washed through his most precious blood, and that we may evermore dwell in him, and he in us. Amen.

~ The Communion Hymn ~

¶ The Celebrant shall receive the Holy Communion in both kinds himself. Then, holding a particle over the Paten or Ciborium, he turns to the People and says:

> Behold the Lamb of God; Behold Him that takes away the sins of the world.

¶ Respond,

> Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldst come under my roof; but speak the word only and my soul shall be healed.

The Celebrant communicates the Clergy (if any be present,) and, after that, the People also in order, all devoutly kneeling. And when he delivereth the Host, he shall say,

The body of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was given for thee, preserve thy body and soul unto everlasting life. Take and eat this in remembrance that Christ died for thee, and feed on him in thy heart by faith, with thanksgiving.

¶ And the Minister who delivereth the Cup shall say,

The blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was shed for thee, preserve thy body and soul unto everlasting life. Drink this in remembrance that Christ's Blood was shed for thee, and be thankful.

¶ When all have communicated, the Celebrant shall return to the Lord's Table, and place upon it what remaineth of the consecrated Elements, either consuming them or covering the same with a fair linen cloth. Then shall he say:

Let us pray.

Almighty and everliving God, we most heartily thank thee, for that thou dost vouchsafe to feed us who have duly received these holy mysteries, with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ; and dost assure us thereby of thy favour and goodness towards us; and that we are very members incorporate in the mystical body of thy Son, which is the blessed company of all faithful people; and are also heirs through hope of thy everlasting kingdom, by the merits of his most precious death and passion. And we humbly beseech thee, O heavenly Father, so to assist us with thy grace, that we may continue in that holy fellowship, and do all such good works as thou hast prepared for us to walk in; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

~ Closing Hymn ~

¶ Returning to the bier, the Minister prays,

Remember thy servant N., O LORD, according to the favour which thou bearest unto thy people, and grant that, increasing in knowledge and love of thee, he may go from strength to strength, in the life of perfect service, in thy heavenly kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost ever, one God, world without end. Amen.

UNTO God's gracious mercy and protection we commit you. The LORD ✠Bless you and keep you. The LORD make his face to shine upon you, and be ✠gracious unto you. The LORD lift up his countenance upon you, and ✠give you peace, both now and evermore. Amen.

OUR FATHER …

¶ As the Lord's Prayer is said, the Minister sprinkles the casket with Holy Water. The Lord's Prayer ended, he says,

Lord, hear our prayer
Answer. And let our cry come unto thee
The Lord be with you.
Answer. And with thy spirit.
Rest eternal grant unto him, O Lord.
All. And let light perpetual shine on him.
May his ✠soul and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.
All. Amen.

¶ As the casket is removed from the church, the Celebrant says,

May the Angels lead thee into paradise; and the holy Martyrs receive thee at thy coming and bring thee to the holy city, Jerusalem. May the choirs of Angels welcome thee, and, with Lazarus who once was poor, mayest thou enjoy rest everlasting.

AT THE GRAVE.

¶ When the Body is readied to be laid into the earth, shall be said,

ALL that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out. He that raised up Jesus from the dead will also quicken our mortal bodies, by his Spirit that dwelleth in us. Wherefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoiceth: my flesh also shall rest in hope. Thou shalt show me the path of life; in thy presence is the fulness of joy, and at thy right hand there is pleasure for evermore.

¶ Then, as earth is cast upon the casket by some standing by, the Minister shall say,

UNTO Almighty God we commend the soul of our brother departed, and we commit his body to the ground; earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust; in sure and certain hope of the Resurrection unto eternal life, through our Lord Jesus Christ; at whose coming in glorious majesty to judge the world, the earth and the sea shall give up their dead; and the corruptible bodies of those who sleep in him shall be changed, and made like unto his own glorious body; according to the mighty working whereby he is able to subdue all things unto himself.

¶ Then shall be said or sung,

I HEARD a voice from heaven, saying unto me, Write, From henceforth blessed are the dead who die in the Lord: even so saith the Spirit; for they rest from their labours.

The Lord be with you.
Answer. And with thy spirit.
Let us pray.
Lord, have mercy upon us.
Christ have mercy upon us.
Lord, have mercy upon us.

OUR FATHER, …

¶ Then shall the Minister say,

O ETERNAL LORD GOD, who holdest all souls in life; Vouchsafe, we beseech thee, to thy whole Church in paradise and on earth, thy light and thy peace; and grant that we, following the good examples of those who have served thee here and are now at rest, may at the last enter with them into thine unending joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE GOD of peace, who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus Christ, the great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant; Make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well pleasing in his sight; through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Rest eternal grant unto him, O Lord.
All. And let light perpetual shine on him.
May he rest in peace.
All. Amen.
May his ✠soul and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.
All. Amen.

Offertory Hymn: Passion Chorale (H. 446)

[1]Commit thou all that grieves thee and fills thy heart with care
To him whose faithful mercy the skies above declare,
Who give the winds their courses, who points the clouds their way;
'Tis he will guide thy footsteps and be thy staff and stay.

[2]O trust the Lord then wholly, if thou wouldst be secure;
His work must thou consider for thy work to endure.
What profit doth it bring thee to pine in grief and care?
God only sends his blessing in answer to thy prayer.

[3]Thy lasting truth and mercy, O Father, see aright
The needs of all thy children, their anguish or delight;
What loving wisdom chooseth, redeeming might will do,
And bring to sure fulfillment thy counsel good and true.

[4]Hope on, then, broken spirit; hope on, be not afraid:
Fear not the griefs that plague thee and keep thy heart dismayed:
Thy God, in his great mercy, will save thee, hold thee fast,
And in his own time grant thee the sun of joy at last.

Communion Hymn: My Faith Looks Up to Thee (H. 449)

[1]My faith looks up to thee, thou Lamb of Calvary, Savior divine!
Now hear me while I pray, take all my guilt away;
O let me from this day be wholly thine.

[2]May thy rich grace impart strength to my fainting heart,
My zeal inspire;
As thou hast died for me, O may my love to thee
Pure, warm and changeless be, a living fire.

[3]While life's dark maze I tread, and griefs around me spread,
Be thou my guide;
Bid darkness turn to day; wipe sorrow's tears away,
Nor let me ever stray from thee aside.

[4]When ends life's transient dream, when death's cold sullen stream
Shall o'er me roll;
Blest Savior, then in love fear and distrust remove;
O bear me safe above, a ransomed soul. Amen.

Brother Stephen M. Yarosh
45 Pond Street
Canton, MA 02021

Dear Brother Stephen:

I am sorry that I have not been in touch with you before this late date. I am writing you with two hats. First as High Priest of Saint Paul's Chapter you were elected to begin your Capitular Degrees in Saint Paul's Chapter. You will most likely start in April, unless the Grand Chapter Degree Team has a Spring Class, which may interest you as you could complete your Capitular Degrees in one day. We will be you informed about the Degree Events.

I am returning your check for Boston Council. We cannot bring your application to vote until such time as you complete all four Capitular Degrees. When that happens I will then ask for your check and bring your application before the Council.

I know that you will enjoy the York Rite Degrees, as they are very beautiful and meaningful. I look forward to meeting you. Thank you for your interest.

Fraternally,

Right Excellent A. Ted Fuller, High Priest

From the Recorder

Companion:

The Royal Master Degree chronologically precedes the Degree of Master Mason. Its central figures are our three ancient Grand Masters and a Fellowcraft in search of and making demand for that reward which would elevate him to the rank of Master Mason. This Degree is preparatory to, and intimately connected with, that of Select Master, both of which are essential to clearly understand all the preceding degrees.

Companion Ted

Consider it your Cryptic duty to notify the Illustrious Master or Recorder of any illness or distress amongst the Companions. If you change your address, please notify me. Thank you.

Conferred Royal Degree

7 October 2004

To the Brothers of
Boston Council
Royal and Select Master Masons.

I wanted to take a few minutes to send you a personal thank you for your recent donation of $1000. to the 601st Family Readiness Group (FRG) here in Katterbach, Germany. It is my understanding that your donation will go towards a welcome-home celebration for our soldiers.

My husband is a soldier in the 601st, serving a year long deployment in Iraq. Both of us were active in our local Masonic Lodges in Florida, and we met through the Masonic Youth Groups. I was a member of the IORG, Brandon Assembly #23, and also served as my local DeMolay Chapter's Sweetheart and as Priory Princess for the Florida Order of Knighthood. My husband, SPC Michael Sullivan, was a member of American Crusaders DeMolay Chapter, housed in Mandarin Masonic Lodge in Jacksonville.

Your support means so much to us personally and also to the spouses that are here in Katterbach. This group has shown strength and dignity in the past 9 months; I have rarely seen such a strong group of people. The entire community has come together in a show of support for each other, and we all look forward to the safe return of our soldiers in the near future. You would be so proud to see the immense strength displayed by those of us that have been "left behind" to support our troops from the homefront.

When your generous donation was announced at our most recent FRG meeting, I felt a great deal of pride in knowing that the Masonic fraternity truly does help others. Thank you so much for offering your support to our soldiers and families.

With Very Best Regards,
Brenda Sullivan

BOSTON COUNCIL ROYAL AND SELECT MASTERS

ANNUAL REPORT OF TRUSTEES and TREASURER, 2003-2004

Dear Companions,

We want to thank all of you for the honor of being given the privilege of having served you and this Council for the past year.

We want to first remind all of you of the remarks of Most Excellent Patterson whose annual report as Grand Treasurer was, "We made some money, we spent some money, and we have some money left over". As that was his entire report, we can say that statement of his adequately reflects this past year for us as well.

The Trustees would like to report that over the past year, we had a gain of $76,570.98 of which $63,500.00 was distributed to the operating account.

Proudly it can be said that once again the number one expenditure is for CHARITY as it should be. For the first time, more than half (50%) of our annual expenditures were for Charity.

The Treasurer reports that in addition to distribution we showed $5,776.61 in income from dues and all other sources. We wish to give the members a report of expenditures as a percentage of monies spent as we did in the past.

Charity 62.65%, Officers' Allowance 7.273%, Printing and Publication 5.768%, Rent 3.02%, Shipping and Postage 1.66%, Grand Council 6.703%, Office and Equipment .405%, Supplies 1.329%, Miscellaneous .003%, and all other expenses to run the Council for the year (Conferences & Conventions & Meetings, line 40 on the IRS Form 990) 11.19%.

We look back upon a very exciting year in the history of Boston Council and we look to the future with hope of more exciting years to come.

Fraternally yours,

V Paul Reed

Subject: Grand Council of Instruction

The Grand Council of Instruction (COI) for the 6th Arch will be held on Friday evening, October 22nd, 2004, at the Newtonville Masonic Building, 460 Newtonville Avenue. The purpose of this COI is not to criticize nor embarrass any Officer, but to help all Officers improve their floorwork and ritual.

A full complement of Officers and the Ritualist of every Council is expected to attend. Please notify me of which officers you will be bringing with you, and your general assessment of their expertice in that Station. The instruction will be held under the direction of the V.I. Grand Lecturers.

Dinner will be served at 6:30 PM and the work of the Select Master Degree will commence at 7:30 PM, promptly. Reservations for dinner should be called in, by the Illustrious Master of each Council, to the Visiting Officer at 781-438-3031 (or e-mailed to georgesarafinas@juno.com) no later than Tuesday, October 19, 2004.

Each Council is responsible for its pro-rata share of the Instruction expenses, approximately $50 per Council. The exact amount will be determined on the night of the COI.

Our aim is to preserve the beauty and dignity of the Ritual, and to encourage Full Form Openings and Closings, as well as conferring the Full Form of the Degrees. The fact that we always seem to have fun and enjoy each other's company when we get together, even for events such as this, is one of the main reasons why we stay with this Fraternity.

The Illustrious Master, Ian T. Jackson, opened the 2318th Regular Assembly of Boston Council Royal and Select Master Masons at 6:20 PM. The Council was opened on the Super Excellent Master Degree.

A business meeting was opened and the Recorder read the minutes of the last Assembly. The minutes were approved. The Illustrious Master asked if there was any new business to attend. Two application were balloted upon:

Companion Juan Patricio Izuierdo Arteaga
Companion Brendon Leo Reed

The balloted was declared opened and both Companions were voted to receive the Degrees in Boston Council.

Application for affiliation:

Application received from Brother George Elliot Downey
63 Watchusett Street
Boston, Massachusetts
Occupation: Firefighter/EMT

Recommended by Companion R. Carlton Hill

The application for Brother Downey will be held until he completed his Royal Arch Degrees.

The recorder expressed his concerns over the three-part application for the York Rite stating that they do not have all the necessary information that is required. That statement also stands for the Application Form for Boston Council. The recorded suggested that we have new applications made and that he would look into a new design.

The Treasurer 's Report was read and accepted. He mention that the current budget of $30,000 a year was not feasible and that consideration should be given to going back to the original budget of $40,000 per year. The Largest expenditure is 31.4% used for Charity. Ill∴Reed spoke about the up-coming Grand Council Session and out lined the schedule of events.

Ill.·. Leon Rabin gave an interesting statement that Boston Council would be celebrating their 300th Anniversary in 13 years. He thought we should starting setting some monies aside for the event.

The Business Meeting was closed at 6:58 PM.

Illustrious Very Illustrious Edward L. Leeds, Grand Captain of the Guard and his distinguished suite of Cryptic Masons was received into Boston Council at 7:10 PM. V.·.I.·. Leeds brought the fraternal greetings of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Master Masons as well as those of Most Illustrious Clayton A. Bemis, Grand Illustrious Master. He thanked his suite for accompanying him this evening. Very Illustrious Edward spoke about his two years of serving as Grand Captain of the Guard and how rewarding it had been for him to serve in that capacity.

The East was again turned back to Illustrious Ian who read a thank you letter from the Lynnfield High Wrestling Club in appreciation of our support to these fine young athletes. Ian also spoke about the 601st Airborne Support Division and that our own Companion Michael DeBaker would be serving in Iraq very shortly. Illustrious Ian also spoke about our companion Masons who were instrumental in the founding of the Turkish Masons. We should all remember those who serve our Country. At this time the Pledge of Allegiance was given to our flag.

Illustrious Leon Rabin exemplified a portion of the Apron Lecture. Ill.·. Ian thanks Leon for his work for the evening. A copy of the Apron Lecture was given to our new affiliate member.

Illustrious Ian returned the gavel of authority to Very Illustrious Leeds who thanked Boston Council for all the sincerity and Charity for our servicemen fighting on our behalf. He stated that Boston Council would be staying in the 6th Arch and hopes some interaction could take place between the 3rd Arch for work and fellowship. Very Illustrious Leeds spoke about the Grand Council Session this weekend and all who were attending would enjoy the weekend. V.·.I.·. Edward called upon Most Illustrious Richard Monroe, Past Grand Illustrious Master of the Grand Council, who spoke briefly.

Very Illustrious Edward L. Leeds closed Boston Council at 7:40 PM. A delicious dinner and fellowship followed in the Grand Masters Dining Room, prepared by our Cryptic chef.

CHAPTER

Royal Arch Masons
(Capitular Degrees)

Mark Master Mason

This, perhaps, is the most ancient of all Masonic Degrees, so ancient in fact at its real origin cannot be exactly traced. The use and lessons of the "Mark" Freemasonry cannot be more instructive, more interesting or more inspiring. here is little doubt but that originally a portion of this Degree was included in e work of the Symbolic Lodge.

Past Master

A regulation of 1813 stated that no Master Mason could receive the Holy yal Arch unless he has been "duly elected and regularly installed to preside ver and govern a regular and duly constituted Lodge of Free and Accepted asons." Thus it became necessary to confer this Degree and a Brother ceiving it would become a Virtual Past Master. It teaches that he who would le over others must first learn to rule himself.

Most Excellent Master

This is a very impressive and beautiful Degree based on the completion d dedication of the First Temple amid much rejoicing and great splendor. e labors of the Craft receive the blessing of the Lord descending from heaven fire. According to tradition, King Solomon instituted a new order of Masons this occasion and bestowed upon them the honorary appellation of Most cellent Master. This Degree was conferred upon the meritorious and praise- orthy only, upon those who through diligence and industry have advanced ward a more perfect life.

Royal Arch Mason

The value to any Mason of this Degree can best be summed up in the ords of an ancient manuscript which states, "The Royal Arch Degree has ays been considered more august, sublime and important than those which eceded it and is the very summit of perfection in Ancient Masonry." It pears in some form in every Rite but only here do you have the historical kground of the destruction and rebuilding of the Temple, the discoveries of missing sacred treasure and more important of all, that which was lost in Third Degree is restored to the Craft in a vivid protrayal of epic events.

COMPANIONS:

To the Officers who participated in the Select Master Degree last Assembly many thanks, a job well done. This month we will confer the Super Excellent Degree on our Candidate. Please be prepared.

Please Note: We are conferring Degrees in Boston Council. It is very difficult when the Officers do not show up to do their Ritual and other Officers must cram other Ritual in order for the Degree to take place. Please we need you. Thank you.

Dinner Reservation

Call Ill.˙. Vincent Reed for reservations at (781) 334-3313.

NO RESERVATIONS, NO DINNER.

THE RECORDER'S QUILL

By order of the Illustrious Master, we will no longer vote on any Candidate who has not completed his Capitular Degrees in a Chapter. This is against the Grand Constitution as well as our own By-laws and, if a person is elected and doesn't come forward to take his Council Degrees, we are stuck with him.

The Grand Council will have a One-Day Class in April. More details about the One Day Class in next month's communication.

I am slowly getting our membership back on track. Hopefully the task will be completed by April. For those who have paid their dues, we thank you. Those who haven't, please submit your payment now. It is through your dues that Boston Council is able to function.

Consider it your Cryptic duty to notify the Illustrious Master or Recorder of any illness or distress amongst the Companions. If you change your address, please notify me. Thank you.

THE RECORDER'S QUILL
– The Select Master Degree –

This Degree was originally know as a "Council of Select Masters of 27". It explains why King Solomon selected twenty-four true, tried and trusty Craftsman with the Three Grand Masters, making twenty-seven and no more, to complete a vital section of the Temple. It is the link that binds the Master Mason Degree to the Royal Arch Degree. It rationally accounts for the concealment and preservation of those essential secrets which were buried in darkness for a long period of four hundred and seventy years and which were brought to light at the building of the Second Temple.

Consider it your Cryptic duty to notify the Illustrious Master or Recorder of any illness or distress amongst the Companions. If you change your address, please notify me. Thank you.

ANNUAL REPORT OF TRUSTEES and TREASURER, 2004-2005

My Companions, it is once again a pleasure to have served as your Treasurer this past year and look forward to serving this council as long as God allows and you so choose.

I remember fondly the remarks of Most Excellent Patterson whose annual report as Grand Treasurer was, "We made some money, we spent some money, and we have some money left over." As that was his entire report, we can say that statement of his adequately reflects this past year for us as well.

The Trustees would like to report that over the past year, we had a gain of $102,034.90 of which $99,000.00 was distributed to the operating account. Thanks is extended to our professional team of counselors, Susan, Clark and Christian.

Proudly it can be said that once again the number one expenditure is for CHARITY as it should be. For the second time in a row, more that half (50%) of our annual expenditures were for Charity.

The Treasurer reports that in addition to distribution we showed $8,320.74 in income from dues and all other sources. We wish to give the members a report of expenditures as a percentage of monies spent as we did in the past.

Charity 69.86%, Officers' Allowance 5.396%, Printing and Publication 4.508%, Rent 2.018%, Shipping and Postage 0.184%, Grand Council 8.171%, Office and Equipement 0.180%, Supplies 0.275%, and all other expenses to run the Council for the year (Conferences & Conventions & Meetings, line 40 on the IRS Form 990) 8.864%.

We look back upon a very exciting year in the history of Boston Council and we look to the future with hope of more exciting years to come.

Fraternally yours,

Vincent Paul Reed, Jr.
